The Photoshop Tutorial

Currently you are in a professional learning community. If you decide to take post-secondary education, you will continue to be in a professional learning community. This is considered formal education. Formal education is NOT the only way to educate yourself. As I have said before it is important to learn HOW to learn, finding away of experiencing new ideas and concepts without a Teacher/Prof dictating the information to you. One way of learning for yourself is to use tutorials. A tutorial is an explanation of a subject, idea or concept printed, or on a computer screen, intended for private study. Your task is find a medium to difficult Photoshop Tutorial on the Internet, complete it and write about it.

The Tutorial MUST:
- Be for Photoshop CS - CS6
- Take at least 45 minutes to complete the tutorial
- Have an end product.
